Olivia Thompson

Olivia is an associate at Le Gros, Buchanan and Paul. Her interest in the maritime industry began at a young age helping her dad on the family boat and sport fishing in Prince William Sound. Between growing up in coastal Alaska and living in Hawaii she gained knowledge of the maritime world through her community of fishermen, boat owners, and commercial vessel crewmembers.

Olivia completed her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Alaska Anchorage in 2013. In May 2020, she graduated cum laude from Roger Williams University School of Law where she focused her studies on maritime and environmental law and was a Rhode Island Sea Grant Law Fellow. In December 2020, she earned a Master of Marine Affairs from the University of Rhode Island.

Olivia is a member of the Washington State Bar Association (2020) and the Hawaii State Bar Association (2021). In her free time Olivia enjoys hiking and camping with her dog Frankie, gardening, and discovering new restaurants and recipes.
